

Corporate Responsibility

St Charles Homes is a boutique house builder, building and renovating beautiful bespoke homes.

We understand a Director and Landlord's corporate responsibility and through our knowledge ensure that you comply with your legal requirements. Changes in the companies act have meant that the Act now prescribes not only the basic duty of the director, but how the director must go about discharging that duty.

This service includes:

- Review of social and environmental impact
- Review of health and safety
- Review of current appliances electrical and gas
- Energy Performance Certificates
- Legionella water analysis
- Annual building checks
